1920 FOOTBALL SEASON ENDS

Three Victories and Four Defeats This Fall—Despite Inexperience of Many Men on Squad, Team Makes Creditable Record.

SUMMARY OF SEASON

The 1920 football season will go on record as proving that the Buff and Blue team is capable of playing creditably a much more difficult schedule than has been customary in the past.

The three victories of the season came with the first three games, which were with Alfred, R. P. I., and N. Y. U. The season's four defeats were received at the hands of Amherst, Williams, Rochester, and Union. In only one of these games was Hamilton entirely outclassed. In the gridiron battles with Rochester and Union the result was always in doubt, and the breaks in each case were against Hamilton. It should also be noted that the Buff and Blue scored in every game except one.

The season was marked by the success with which Coach Prettyman and Captain Campbell whipped an inexperienced team into shape for good football. Next in importance there is the serious crippling of the team in mid-season by injuries received by Clark, Lawler, and Fowler.

COLLEGE DINNER HELD IN COMMONS

Undergraduates Meet to Arouse Enthusiasm for Football Game with Union at Schenectady.

Last Friday evening the annual college dinner, on the eve of the Union game, was held in Commons Hall. Throughout the meal college songs were sung, especially the new marching song by Lighthall, '21, and "pep" was aroused for the contest with Union on the morrow.

After the dinner, a short meeting of the Undergraduate Association was held. Dr. Wood presided, and several matters were brought up for consideration. The resignation of Maier, '21, Manager of Hockey, was accepted. Assistant Manager Bennett, '22, was elected Manager. Certain slight changes were adopted in the sections of the Constitution referring to the qualifications for wearing class numerals.

Dr. Chase opened the program of speakers with a rousing speech on how squarely Hamilton always "played the game." T. Bartle Gorman, '20, last year's football captain, was next called upon. Doctor M. L. Bonham then praised the fighting spirit of the team.

Captain "Art" Campbell praised the spirit of the College, mentioning

Lawler, Hamilton's Left End, Kicks Field Goal From Twenty-Eight Yard Line—Clark's Ability to Gain Through Line Is Feature of Game—Record Crowd in Attendance—Union Frosh Hold Annual Parade.

Hamilton lost by a score of 7 to 3 in the annual Hamilton-Union football game, played on Alexander Field in Schenectady last Saturday. A large crowd filled the stands and many persons were unable to get seats.

The day was cold, with a raw wind and poor light, but the crowd started to fill the stands long before the kick-off. The Union Freshmen, dressed in fantastic costumes, organized their annual parade in the city and marched up to the campus, where they circled the gym and finally broke up near the stands. Some of the features of their pageant were President-elect Harding and his porch campaign, a coffin decorated with vegetables and labelled "Hamilton," and numerous ladies of the chorus. Most of the Hamilton section assembled at the station and marched directly to the field, led by a band and singing Hamilton marching songs.

Shortly after the appointed time of 2:15 p. m., the Garnet and the Buff and Blue elevens took the field, both teams being greeted with vociferous cheers by their adherents. The first quarter ended without score on either side, but soon after changing goals, Union started an attack by the aerial route which brought the ball down to Hamilton's six-yard line. Here Hamilton held against three attacks on her line, but on the fourth attempt, Goff, Union's star quarterback, carried the ball over the line for the only touchdown of the game. Gregory kicked the goal.

Hamilton's only score was in the third period, when Lawler made a fine goal from placement from the twenty-eight yard line. Once during the last period, Clark brought the ball well within striking distance of the Union goal line, but the ball was lost on a fumble.

Alumni News

—Leland M. Rice, '20, who is attending M. I. T., has changed his address to 177 Hancock street, Cambridge, Mass.

—J. Frederick Neff, '20, is in Harvard University.

—Dean M. Fuller, '20, is teaching English and History at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

—S. G. Rosenthal, '20, is at the Harvard Law School.

—Morton E. Brownell, ex-'16, is now associated with his father, A. H. Brownell, who is an eye specialist at Oneonta, N. Y.

—Howard S. Hunt, ex-'22, is now employed in the Norwich Post Office. He expects to begin a course in accountancy at New York City in January.

—Frank R. Wassung, '13, was on the Hill for the Rochester game. Mr. Wassung is Superintendent of Schools in Norwich, N. Y.

—Robert J. Hughes, '91, and Warren C. DuBois, '12, are contributing editors of the new standardized "Course of Public Speaking", published by the International Committee of the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Hughes has written a special lecture on "Voice and the Man", while Mr. DuBois' lecture is entitled "Silent Eloquence."

—Delavan McLean, '08, will be operated on in a few weeks to restore the use of his limbs. He is lying in the Presbyterian Hospital in Philadelphia, with his legs and lower part of the body paralyzed.

Mr. McLean was a member of the Four Hundred Third Telegraph Battalion, overseas. While driving a truck over a French road a month after the armistice was signed, a hind wheel went wrong, and he was found underneath with a broken back. He was brought to this country in a plaster of Paris cast, and has been treated for the injuries, and it is expected that the coming operation will complete the cure.

With the Colleges

—George Washington University of Washington, D. C., is planning to erect a new Arts and Science building.

—The Pre-Medic Club of Union College which was broken up at the beginning of the war was recently reorganized.

—Boar's Head, the Syracuse University dramatic society, will present a Cohan and Harris comedy, "The Tailor Made Man", at the Empire Theater Monday evening, January 24. This play was selected for presentation after a careful survey of modern comedies.

—More than 300 students in Princeton University, mostly juniors who have enrolled in the economics courses, will have their photographs taken to be used in a card index by professors in the Department of Economics. To help identify the students each instructor will bring to the recitation rooms a small box bearing cards, on which will be the name, seat number, and photograph of the students. This plan was used with marked success at Cornell in the Student Army Training courses during the war.

—During its recent drive for $5,000,000 the University of Buffalo received a large tract of land from the Buffalo Rotary Club for an athletic field to be known as Rotary Field.

—Stanford University has begun the construction of a $425,000 School for Nurses in connection with its medical schools and hospitals. Living accommodations, laboratories, and class room facilities for two hundred students will be provided.

—Free training in boxing will soon be given to all students at the University of Michigan. The sport will be placed under the head of physical education and intramural activities and will be directly in charge of the boxing coach.

—The Chinese Students' Alliance in America held three interesting sectional meetings in the late summer. The western section met at the University of California, the mid-western section at the University of Michigan, and the eastern at Princeton. A total of 590 Chinese students attended the conferences and took part in both Chinese and English in debates and oratorical contests.

—An unusually large schedule has been prepared for the Columbia Debating team this season. The first debate of the year will be with the University of Texas which is sending its team to New York. The annual intercollegiate triangular debate with the University of Pennsylvania and Cornell will take place in April. A contest is also being arranged with Yale and Syracuse.

—Joseph E. Deering, one of the oldest referees in basketball circles and a coach of wide repute, has been appointed Varsity Basketball coach at Columbia. The selection of so able a coach as Mr. Deering has been enthusiastically hailed at Columbia in view of the fact that, supplementing the Heppe cup which was annexed by Pennsylvania last season, the Arthur Alexander Memorial cup is to be awarded the champion intercollegiate team of this year. Arthur Alexander was one of the most brilliant players that ever occupied a place on a Columbia Varsity team, being All-American center for three years. He died in the service of his country, and it is in his memory that his admirers among Columbia Alumni have offered the cup bearing his name.

—Considerable national interest is attached to the coming selection of a new president for Yale University. Four men are the outstanding candidates, two of these being affiliated with the university at present, and two outside—all but one being Yale men. The faculty men are Anson Phelps Stokes and Wilbur Lucius Cross. The former is a student of educational problems who has proven his abilities as an executive. The latter is dean of the Graduate School and noted for his editing of English. Henry Sloane Coffin, is the New York city candidate. He studied theology classics. A Presbyterian clergyman, at Union Seminary and in Scotland and Germany. Although a comparatively young man, he is known as a very good speaker. The non-Yale candidate is Livingstone L. Ferrand, a former president at the University of Colorado and two years chairman of the Red Cross.

The Football Season

Although this season's defeats in football have outnumbered the victories, nevertheless the record made this fall by the Buff and Blue eleven is a creditable one. For a team of much less weight than is usual with Hamilton's eleven to win games by straight football, to the practical exclusion of aerial plays is no small achievement. The Alfred, R. P. I., and N. Y. U. victories were well earned and the playing of the team in those three games was of the finest. In the Amherst and Williams games it was superior open field running that spelled defeat for the Buff and Blue. Hamilton's line, although light, was sturdy in resistance and aggressive on the offense.

The Union game, played at Schenectady last Saturday, was very close throughout all four periods. The two teams were so evenly matched that the outcome was uncertain until the last minute of play. The victory went to Union by a scant four points, Lawler's fine field goal saving Hamilton from finishing scoreless.

The lack of veterans for this year's team has had one compensating advantage. It has compelled the candidates from the lower classes to work harder than ever, and the results of this condition should contribute much toward a powerful eleven for next year.

The New Art Course

The new course in Art, announced by the Trustees and described in an article on page eight of this issue, is a distinctly valuable addition to the curriculum of the College. It has long been said of this College that it graduates men with Bachelor's degrees in Arts who have never taken any course in art itself. That objection will now be removed.

Edward W. Root, '05, is an artist of recognized ability and vision. He possesses the appreciation and the vigorous purpose necessary to impart a true conception of art to the average undergraduate. His record as an artist is an excellent one, and it is with pleasure that we await his return to his Alma Mater.

HAMILTON LOSES TO UNION IN HARD FOUGHT CONTEST, 7-3

cheering section sang Union's Alma Mater, and the Hamilton men followed with "Carissima."

A muddy field made successful passing difficult, and for the most part both teams relied on straight football, although for a short time in the last quarter Hamilton tried passing with poor success. Both teams suffered heavy losses from fumbles, and both received about an equal number of penalties.

COACH PRETTYMAN

Brucker of Union and Clark of Hamilton shared honors in tearing holes in the line. Jones and Goff were also feature men in the Garnet line-up, while Campbell and Lawler did fine work for Hamilton.

The game, play by play, was as follows:

First Quarter

Lawler kicked to Brucker, who ran the ball back 23 yards. Brucker hit the line for 3 yards, and then Hamilton was given two penalties of 5 yards each. Mosher made two 4-yard gains through the line, and Goff 2 yards through center. Brucker took the ball again, and made 11 yards. Goff followed with two more. Brucker made 3 yards through the line. After an incomplete pass and a 3-yard gain by Goff, the ball went to Hamilton on downs. In three line plunges Clark made the required distance. Seaver went around right end for 18 yards. Clark made first down again by four plunges through the line. Union then tightened up, and the next play netted Hamilton no gain. Clark made 4 yards through tackle, and Seaver 1 yard through the line. An attempt at a goal from a drop kick fell short. Union took the ball on downs on her 20-yard line. Brucker made 9 yards at right tackle, and lost 3 at left end. Jones made 4 at right tackle, and Brucker made 5 yards through the line. Murray made a 40-yard kick, which was fumbled, and recovered by Klein. Mosher made 3 yards through the line. Goff fumbled on the next play, and Burke recovered. Seaver lost 8 yards at right end. Clark failed to make the distance, and Lawler kicked. Jones received and was tackled without running the ball back. Goff hit the line for 5 yards, Brucker made 1 yard through left tackle, and Jones made 6 yards. On the next play, Goff gave the ball to Jones, who carried it 15 yards. At this point time was called for the quarter.

Second Quarter

The second quarter opened with the ball in Union's possession on Hamilton's 36-yard line. Goff and Brucker together made three yards through the line. A 30-yard pass from Goff to Meyers brought the ball well down into Hamilton's territory. Starting from Hamilton's 6-yard line, Union used her full allotment of downs before the ball was shoved over for a touchdown. Goff carried the ball for the touchdown. Captain Gregory kicked the goal. Union kicked to Hamilton, but the ball went out of bounds. The kick was repeated from the 35-yard line because of a 5-yard penalty for starting ahead of the ball. Lawler received on the 20-yard line. One attempt at an end run netted no gain, and another lost 5 yards. Lawler kicked. Union's ball on the 50-yard line. Union made 5 yards at left end and then suffered a 15-yard penalty for holding. Ball on the 37-yard line. Union made 8 yards through right tackle and right end and then kicked. Seaver took the ball on the 20-yard line, and carried it back 5 yards. Seaver lost 5 yards at right end, and Clark made 4 yards through center. A forward pass with May on the receiving end netted 20 yards. A lateral pass to Lawler made 8 yards more. The next pass was not completed. Seaver made 5 yards on a short pass, and then Clark went through center for 7 yards. A buck and a lateral gained less than a yard. An incomplete forward pass gave the ball to Union on downs on the 33-yard line. A run around left end brought 11 yards, and one around the opposite end made 6 yards. The next pass was not completed. Using an open formation, Union tried two more passes, but failed to complete them. A regular pass was broken up before the play got well under way. Another failure to complete a pass gave the ball to Hamilton on downs, on Union's 44-yard line. Five yards was made on a lateral pass, and three incomplete passes gave the ball back to Union, on the Garnet's 33-yard line. After a 10-yard gain at left end, the whistle blew for the half.

A. BAILEY CLARK, '21

Third Quarter

Union kicked to Hamilton's 20-yard line, where the ball was received and carried back to the 39-yard line. After a gain of 5 yards at tackle, Clark hit the center for 1 yard. A short gain through the center was not enough to finish out the 10 yards, and Union took the ball on downs, on Hamilton's 48-yard line. On the first play Union fumbled and Lawler recovered. Clark made 2 yards through center. Warren took the ball through center, and ran to the Union goal, but the ball was called back because the play went out of bounds. After a loss on the next play, Lawler kicked to Jones, who ran the ball back 6 yards to the 26-yard line. A 2-yard gain at center and a failure at left end followed. Murray kicked to Seaver, who received on the 40-yard line, and ran the ball back 4 yards. An attempt at right end made no gain, and a pass was not completed. Lawler kicked to Goff, who was tackled on the 25-yard line. Jones made 3 yards at right tackle and Brucker made a yard and a half at left tackle. Union was penalized 5 yards for being off side. A kick was attempted, but was blocked. Spice recovered on Union's 15-yard line. Then followed an incomplete pass, and a loss of five yards at right end by Campbell. Lawler failed to get within range of the next pass. On the following play, starting from the 28-yard line, Lawler kicked a goal from placement.

On the kick-off, the ball went over the Union goal line, and play was started from the 20-yard line. Goff made 5 yards, and Brucker 4 yards through center. Mosher made first down on a plunge at center. Brucker, Jones, and Mosher hammered center for another first down. Union was penalized five yards for being off side. Clark spoiled an attempt at a run around right end for a 5-yard loss. Union kicked to Kaiser on the 43-yard line. The next two plays combined lost six yards. After an incomplete pass Lawler kicked to Union's 23-yard line. End of quarter.

Fourth Quarter

Brucker started the last quarter with a 7-yard gain at right end. The next two plays were directed at center, but failed to make the required distance. Union kicked to Hamilton's 42-yard line. An incomplete pass followed. Kaiser missed a low pass from center about 20 yards behind the line of scrimmage, but recovered the ball and ran it back so that the loss was only 3 yards. Two incomplete passes followed. The ball went to Union on Hamilton's 39-yard line. Brucker made 7 yards at right end, and then Union kicked to Kaiser, who ran 6 yards back to the 35-yard line. A fumble followed, but Clark recovered with a loss of 4 yards. On an attempt at an end run, Kaiser lost 8 yards. Lawler kicked to Jones, who ran the ball from Union's 20-yard line back to the 42-yard line. After a gain of 1 yard, Brucker hit center for 3 yards. An incomplete pass followed. Union kicked. Hamilton's ball on the 25-yard line. Warren made 9 yards on a lateral pass. Clark made 4 yards through center. A lateral pass from Campbell to Lawler lost 11 yards. A fumble gave the ball to Union on Hamilton's 34-yard line. Union made 3 yards through center on two plays. The game ended with the ball in play, in Union's possession, on Hamilton's 31-yard line.

The Buff and Blue had good success with line-plunging play in offensive work. This upset some of the "dope" concocted on the situation at the beginning of the year. With the team's light backfield, it was generally thought that Hamilton would have to rely on an open field attack. This had little success, and most of Hamilton's gains were made through the opposing line.

The line was also a decided factor in the Buff and Blue defense. Amherst was the only team that could gain consistently through the Hamilton line. It was Hamilton's inability to guard against passes that caused the four defeats of the season. This was especially evident in the Rochester and Union games.

No survey of the season would be complete without a tribute to Captain Campbell. His aggressiveness, indomitable pluck, and excellent leadership proved that he was well chosen to captain the 1920 eleven. The work of Lawler and Clark was at all times worthy of the highest praise. Both were mainstays of the eleven all through the season. The rest of the team played fine football and, considering the inexperience of most of the men, the eleven made as creditable a record this year as ever was made in the history of Hamilton football.

T. Bartle Gorman, '20, Captain of Football in 1919, assisted on the coaching staff throughout the season and helped considerably to train the eleven.

A fact:

Day in and day out, at the Pennsylvania R. R. Station, New York, the sales of Fatima exceed those of any other cigarette.

Two things might make you want to change your cigarette

FOR example, you might find straight Turkish cigarettes too rich for steady smoking, because of too much Turkish tobacco.

Or you might find ordinary part-Turkish or Turkish Blend cigarettes "thin" and "flat", because of too little Turkish.

In either case (should you decide to change) the logical choice would be a cigarette containing "just enough Turkish."

The only cigarette that contains less Turkish than the straight Turkish brands and more than any other Turkish Blend is Fatima.

This is the basis for Fatima's claim of "just enough Turkish."

And scores of sales facts such as the one shown above surely seem to justify Fatima's claim.

HOCKEY RINK TO BE READY DEC. 1

New Rink to be a Great Improvement Over One Used Last Year—Nine Lights Provide Illumination.

SQUAD BEGINS PRACTICE

If favorable weather conditions for outdoor working continue, the new hockey rink will be finished and ready for flooding by December 1. The water for the flooding will be carried through a special large main, four inches in diameter, so as to be able to supply with water any other buildings that may be built in that section of the campus. This pipe will be tapped on the line that runs from North College through Sigma Phi Place.

The old grandstand has been partially torn down and made into a warming-house and dressing room for the players. The rink itself will be quite an improvement over last year's rink. Nine lights, instead of three, will be placed over the rink, providing sufficient illumination for games to be played at night, if necessary. The dimensions of the rink are to be 170x85 feet; 26 feet longer and three feet narrower than the old rink. This size is a great improvement over last year, as the old rink was too short and wide. The old rink was not level, and there was a difference of six inches in height between the opposite ends. The new rink will be perfectly level, and it will be very easy to form ice upon it.

Indoor practice started yesterday in the gym. The golf cage in the old swimming pool is at present being used for hockey. A platform constructed at one end is being used to raise a man to the normal height attained on skates. A hardwood floor is to be laid from the platform to represent the ice. The goal tenders, however, will be drilled on the basketball floor. As wind and speed are requisites to successful hockey playing, the candidates will practice soccer, cross country and basketball in order to get in first class condition.

As soon as the weather permits, the squad will go out on the ice to practice. Scrimmage, goal shooting, carrying the puck, skating, and teamwork will be immediately taken up. Good material from last year's squad is available, but Captain Kaiser and Coach Prettyman are looking to the Freshman Class to develop many new players.

as an instance -where Hamilton spirit was shown, the night when the undergraduates met the team in Clinton after the defeat at Williams. He made it clear that the team was going to Union to fight for victory.

After Campbell's speech, each member of the team was called upon, cheers were given vigorously, the college songs were sung, and the evening ended with the singing of "Carissima."

SPECIAL COURSE IN ART TO BE CONDUCTED BY EDWARD W. ROOT, '05

By appointment of the Trustees, Edward W. Root, Hamilton, '05, will conduct a special course of eighteen exercises in art during the present college year. The first half of the course will be given in three exercises per week for three weeks directly after Thanksgiving and the second half by similar schedule in the early spring. The course will be counted for one semester hour as its eighteen exercises suggest. It is offered to Seniors and Juniors in one group of ten men or in two groups of ten men each, according to the number of elections and the possibilities of the schedule. It is intended that regular scchedule hours be used and an attempt will be made to avoid those of the late afternoon, inasmuch as good light is necessary for work dealing so largely with questions of color.

In general, men whose schedules already include extra hours may be admitted to this course only by special permission of the Committee on Schedule and Studies. Furthermore, in making up the class, the Committee may take into consideration the scholarship of the applicants.

The course will not follow the customary historical method but will start with a brief consideration of the ways in which the mediums, colors, tone and color values, qualities of good drawing and painting, etc., until finally pictures and schools of painting will be discussed. For illustrative purposes actual drawings and paintings rather than photographs will be used from the beginning of the course.

An outline of the entire course will be found on the bulletin board in the Library.

Seniors and Juniors desiring to elect this course are requested to leave their names at the Office of the President before Thursday of this week.

The aim and methods of the course are as follows:

1. How Nature makes itself seen—light, mass, tone, color, atmosphere, and perspective.

2. Kinds of mediums (i. e., pen and ink, pencil, charcoal, woodcut, etching, engraving, pastel, watercolor, oil, etc.) in common use and the pictures made from them. Methods of representation (i. e., outline pictures, pictures in flat tones and flat colors, mass drawings and paintings).

3. Tone and color values. What is meant by key (i. e., high key pictures, middle key, low key, full contrast).

4. Color intensity. Sprectrum colors and their greys. Contrasting colors. Analogous colors. Color reflections.

5. Some qualities of good drawing and painting. Omission. Addition. Alteration. Simplification. Variety. Unity. Ease. Suitability of treatment to theme.

6. Interpretive pictures.

7. Decorative pictures, pure design, household furnishings and objects d'art of all kinds.

8. Schools of Painting.

9. Demonstation of drawing and painting by George B. Luks.

SUMMARY OF CROSS COUNTRY SEASON

Record of Hamilton Harriers for This Fall Is One Victory and One Defeat.

The completion of the fall cross country schedule, besides giving Coach Prettyman an idea of the material in the College, practically assures the renewal of the sport here next year. One victory and a defeat strike a fair balance for the first season of a sport which requires such steady development and practice as does cross country. The hard work done by this year's squad during each day of practice and the coaching of Track Captain Holler, '21, have done much toward making this season's record a creditable one.

The first meet against Rennselaer, won by the Buff and Blue, was a good test of the team's ability. Like Hamilton, R. P. I. has not had a cross country team for several years and this was R. P. I.'s first meet of the season. Thompson, Doane, and Va Hoesen finished in the first three places and were followed by five men of the visiting team. Yates and Williams were the other Hamilton runners to finish.

The defeat by Rochester is not so disheartening if the previous record of Rochester is considered. The Yellow has had considrable success with its cross country squad for a number of years and has spent much time in the development of that sport. Van Hoesen started the race handicapped with a twisted knee and was forced to drop out when about half way around the course. Thompson finished almost twenty-five yards ahead of the far-famed Milliman, who was predicted the winner by the Rochester boosters. Doane was closing in fast on the final stretch, but was unable to cross the gap opened by the leaders. He finished in fourth place. The final score was 31 to 24.

All of this year's team will be back next fall, and with added material from next year's entering class the team should be able to develop a strong organization.

DR. FERRY HONORED

At a meeting of the Teachers' Insurance and Annuity Association held last Tuesday in New York City, Dr. Frederick C. Ferry was re-elected to a three-year trusteeship in that body.

At a recent meeting of the trustees of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, Dr. Frederick C. Ferry was elected a trustee.

CORRECTION

A mistake was made in the "Notice to Underclassmen" published in last week's Life. Paragraph 1 should have read as follows:

1. The season for underclass banquets is from November 22 to December 21, excluding Thanksgiving Day.

SUMMARY OF SOCCER SEASON

Poor Showing of Team Due to Lack of Seasoned Candidates and to Strength of Teams Played.

GOOD SQUAD FOR NEXT YEAR

The 1920 soccer football season, which has just ended, appears upon first consideration to have been a marked failure. This, however, is not the case. Soccer is a new sport in Hamilton College, many of the men on the squad having never seen the game played before this season. The material in the College is good and will no doubt form the nucleus of a good team for next year.

Besides the lack of seasoned material, three things are responsible for the seemingly distastrous season. These are the excellent standing of the teams played, lack of opposition for the first team in its practice, and poor goal-shooting. Sherrill, Clark Mills, Syracuse, and Colgate all possess teams of good reputation throughout the State. During the past season the first team often lacked a second team to work against.

The work during the early part of the fall was hampered by the lack of adequate coaching. Professor C. L. Lewis was then secured to aid the squad. His efforts were quite successful and helped to create interest in the sport.

There is a chance that a schedule of a few games may be arranged for next spring. In case this is done there will be abundant material with which to form a winning team. The outlook for next fall is very promising in the number of experienced players. Captain Bartlett, Wettel, Keehn, and Fiske will be missed, but Nichols, Moore, Hallock, Brownell, Forshay, Heffron, Marlow, Palmer, Reeder, Keane, and Willard will be left of this year's squad.

A picture of the soccer team will be taken some time during thhis week. At that time a captain for next year will probably be chosen.

A summary of the season follows:

Oct. 16—Hamilton 0, Clark Mills 1.
30—Hamilton 0, Colgate 2.
Nov. 3—Hamilton 0, Syracuse 8.
6—Hamilton 1, Sherrill 5.
13—Hamilton 0, Colgate 2.
Totals, Hamilton 1, Opponents 18.
